17. SUMMER TIME SHARING

- The children shall spend a substantial period of summer vacation with the Away Parent.
- The summer period is defined as starting on the last day of regularly scheduled classes of one school year and ending on the first day of regularly scheduled classes of the next school year.

↓ Check one

- The child(ren) shall spend the month of July with the Away Parent.
- The child(ren) shall spend the entire summer vacation with the Away Parent except for the first week and the last two weeks of vacation.
- The child(ren) shall spend _____ weeks of summer vacation with the Away Parent. In order to have first choice, the Away Parent shall provide Local Parent a date schedule for the summer by April 15th of each year. Otherwise, the Local Parent will have first choice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the child(ren) shall be with the local parent for the last week of summer break each year in order for the child(ren) to prepare for the new school year.
- The parents have agreed upon the summer contact schedule that is written here:

- Parents shall make alternate arrangements within two weeks after the summer school schedule is determined if child(ren) must attend a summer academic program mandated by the child(ren)'s school district, as follows:

↓ Check all that apply

- The child(ren) shall attend summer school in the same district where school is attended during the school year. Summer contact with the Away Parent shall begin after summer school ends.
- The child(ren) shall attend summer school in the Away Parent's school district so long as the child(ren)'s home school district will approve it. It shall be the responsibility of the Away Parent to secure approval from the home school district and enroll the child(ren) in summer school in their district prior to scheduling the child(ren)'s summer contact. The Away Parent shall provide the Local Parent with documentation establishing approval and enrollment if requested.
- If the child(ren) must attend summer school and it limits either parent's contact time, the party who is negatively affected shall be entitled to make-up time over the next twelve months.
